

Dear ChoSD member

This is a newsletter - the edition 2006 of ChoSD in Mogilany.

Below you find news and information in few categories. Check what you need: news, projects, publications, other links.

I. NEWS

1. "Grants for Mogilany Alumni" is a competition for an alumnus of a course „Challenges of Sustainable Development in Poland" and participants of project's The Sendzimir Foundation. A goal this competition is support people interested in sustainable development. The competition is funded by The Sendzimir Foundation and it's organized by Center of System Solution. A maximum grant is 4.000 zł. Closing date for application is 30 September 2006. For more information check <http://www.crs.org.pl/konkurs/>

2. You can join a discussion group "Mogilany 2006". We discuss about sustainable development and not only. It is available <http://www.sustainable.forumer.pl/>

3. You can find information about different courses and projects for all kind of activity on web page <http://moodle.crs.org.pl/>

4. "Guard for animal" is association help animals. Aims of association is look after to obey animals rights, care about animals and environmental, to fight a abuse on animals also and promote good attitude for animals. For more information about association check <http://www.strazdlazwierzat.krakow.prv.pl/> . You ask a question to gogapietsch@wp.pl .

5. Initiative for lively culture "The white rooks" invites to web page <http://www.bialekawrony.org/> They promote the new cultural activities, social life and ecological education. Foundation popularizes an exchange of views and ideas, also criticizes consumption, exaggerated rivalry, aggression.

6. Schumacher College is an international center educating and inspiring for sustainability. The centre of ecological studies organizes courses "Art in place – linking art to ecology" - September 10 – 22, 2006 and "Animate Earth" – October 8 – 13, 2006. See for more information on <http://www.schumachercollege.org.uk/>

7. For all member of "Challenges of Sustainable Development in Poland" is ask about suggestions and proposals how shoulds look the 10 edition of course. What do you expect? Please send any ideas and offers by mail gisela.bosch@chello.at

II. PROJECTS

1. " Water & Wastewater of Przystop" is a project which is doing during 12 – 17 July 2007 within the confines of a course „Challenges of Sustainable Development in Poland". The project is analyzing a delivery water to local residents and elimination sewages in Przystop. Trainees and stakeholders are working out an application of model's management of the water-supply and sewage system. The model will be economical, comfortable for residents and friendly for environmental. Result of project causes to increase of sustainability Przysłop. See <http://www.sendzimir.org.pl/course/> to join course and web page about Przysłop <http://www.przyslop.zawoja.pl>

2. Workshop “Sustainable Water Management in Dziewin” in 15-17 September 2006. It is the second workshop entitled “Technical possibility become realized investment of hydro-botanical sewage - treatment plant”. At the workshop is going to be work out a model project of hydro-botanical sewage - treatment plant. You can read more <http://www.sendzimir.org.pl/dziewin/>

3. Aeris Futuro Foundation realizes a project “Time for forest” which refers to companies, institutions and single people and in future it will enable to neutralize CO2 emission by afforestation taking place in whole Poland. Aeris Futuro Foundation promotes, supports and initiates activities a sustainable development in Poland. See more <http://www.aeris.eko.org.pl/>

III. OTHER LINKS

1. Do not forget to look at page <http://www.sendzimir.org.pl/> and the polish version page with different courses <http://www.sendzimir.org.pl/course/> .